National Tax Group Recognizes Senator Brad Zaun With “Honorary Tax Fighter” Award

Senator Brad Zaun, candidate for Congress in Iowa’s 3rd District, has been recognized with an “Honorary Tax Fighter” award by the National Tax Limitation committee (NTLC). Committee President Lewis K. Uhler said, “We reserve this honorary award for those candidates whose commitment to restraint of government spending and taxation is absolutely clear from their public statements, actions and pledges.”

NTLC has rated members of the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives for over a quarter century and presents “TAX FIGHTER” awards to those members who earn an “A” grade on NTLC’s Congressional scorecard.

“While the current incumbent in the 3rd district Leonard Boswell has failed miserably on our scorecard, receiving 2% or an “F” grade, we fully expect to be giving our Congressional “TAX FIGHTER” award to Senator Zaun at the end of the next (112th) Congress, after he votes to repeal Obamacare and to kill “Cap and Trade” black flag dead,” Uhler concluded.
